Faculty Development Programme:

Academic endeavours like Faculty Development Programme, (FDP) facilitates upgradation of knowledge, skill and aims to provide skills that are vital for teaching and research. The aim of the FDP is to describe activities and programmes designed to improve instruction in the classroom teaching. FDP not only upskills the teachers but also creates and emphasizes learner centered teaching. Today there is a paradigm shift in the role of teachers from only lecturing to involving the students in discussions, taking regular feedback from the students and improvising on the subject. The shift has been further accentuated by the outbreak of the pandemic COVID 19 which encouraged online teaching and the same involved considerable use of technology. FDP aims to identify the upcoming changes in the curriculum and the role of the faculty. Faculty must become a learner before becoming a teacher. To maximize the ability of the faculty to teach and the ability of the student to learn, FDP should lie at the heart of the learning process of the faculty. This FDP emphasizes on learner centered teaching, there by catering to the needs of the members of the teaching faculty and researchers in law.

Objectives of FDP:

- To bring the academicians, researchers and law practitioners to a common platform to understand the complexities involved in teaching the law subjects.
- In the light of the practitioners of law being a part of this FDP, it paves way for the participants to have better understanding of practical dimensions of law.
- To ultimately lead to a further study and research required for the betterment of the society.

Legal profession offers immense scope in not only tackling legal problems through judicial settlements but also to resort to alternate dispute resolution systems. ### About the Seminar

The Drugs and Cosmetics Act 1940 was introduced to have a comprehensive measure for the uniform control of manufacture and distribution of drugs as well as import of the same. In the face of the changing circumstances and developments in the field of science, there is a need to revisit the enactment to revitalize it. Right to Health, being a basic human right, should be guaranteed to all the people and the State should take the responsibility of guaranteeing the same to the last man. However, there is a lack of coordination among the professionals from the legal and medical fraternity, pharmaceutical industry and legislators. While enacting the law, the legislators may have focused only on the altruistic of the issue. Consequently, on implementation the required effect may not have been produced on the society as well as on industry.

The aim of this Seminar is to bring the academicians, legal medical experts as well as regulatory bodies, industry community pharmacists to a common platform to deliberate on the issues and produce a result compatible with the Right to Health of a common man.

This seminar hopes to: Principal

- Lead to better understanding of the law by the medical practitioners and allied professions, Maruthi Extension, Gayathri Nagar, Bengaluru-560 02
- Bring deeper understanding of the intricacies and nuances involved in the techniques of treatment by professionals well as those running private medical establishments, and
- Create awareness among the consumers about their right seeking medical assistance.

- In India every year people (130 crore-Population) spend around 5 lakh crore as expenditure on health i.e. it may be on hospitals, Medicines or diagnostics<sup>1</sup> i.e. 5% of India's GDP. # Constitution Guarantees Right to Health

- Right to Health is the basic fundamental right derived from Article 21 of Indian Constitution

Generic Drug-A boon to people

- "A Generic Drug is a medication created to be the same as an existing approved brand-name drug in dosage form, safety, strength, route of administration, quality and performance characteristics<sup>4</sup>."

Cost of Generic Medicine

Bayer Corporation v. Natco Pharma Ltd. (Natco v. Bayer)

- Bayer's plea dismissed by the Intellectual Property Appellate Board.<sup>16</sup> The Intellectual Property Appellate Board (IPAB) on Monday upheld the grant of compulsory licence (CL) to the Hyderabad-based Natco Pharma Limited, a generic drug maker, to produce and market Nexavar, a patented cancer drug of multinational pharma major Bayer Corporation.

ANTI-CANCER DRUG ( LIVER AND KIDNEY CANCER)

- AFTER JUDGEMENT

Drug Price of the same Generic form by Natco Pharma Ltd : Rs.8000/- for a pack of 120 tablets

Illustration in the case of Novartis vs. Union of India and others.<sup>15</sup>

INDIA IS THE LARGEST SUPPLIER OF GENERIC MEDICINE TO OTHER COUNTRIES.

- 20 per cent of global export volume
- The Indian Pharmaceuticals Industry (IPI) earns around 70 per cent of its revenues from sale of generic drugs and generates around 50 per cent of its revenues from exports.

Unfortunately

- Studies and our survey says 5% patients know about generic drugs in India
- Except Doctors and Nurses 60% of non Medical staff and 95% of the patients did not know about it.<sup>19-21</sup>
- This is due to lack of awareness among people.

PRADHAN MANTRI BHARATIYA JAN AUSHADHI PARIYOJANA (PMBJP)

MISSION

- Create awareness among public regarding generic medicines.
- Create demand for generic medicines through medical practitioners.
- Create awareness through education and awareness programme that high price need not be synonymous with quality.
- Provide all commonly used medicines covering all the therapeutic groups.
- provide all the related healthcare products too under the scheme.

PARTIAL FAILURE OF THE POLICY

Results of Research

Reason for failure

1. NON-PRESCRIPTION OF GENERIC MEDICINES:

On Sep 21, 2016 - Central Govt by Medical Council of India amended Clause 1.5 Professional Conduct, Etiquette and Ethics Regulations, 2002 that - "Every Physician should prescribe drugs with Generic names legibly and preferably in Capital letters and he/she shall ensure that there is a national prescription and use of drugs". Hon'ble PM Narendra Modi in a speech (In Surat) asked doctors to prescribe Generic Medicine. BUT THIS IS NOT EFFECTIVE AS WE CAN SEE IN THE SURVEY.

Reason for failure

2. DOUBT ON QUALITY

Doctors themselves doubt about the quality of Generic Medicine prepared by Government.

As 60% doctors in the survey doubt the quality of Generic medicine, it's is no wonder that 99% of patients doubt on its quality.

Reason for Failure

2. DOUBT ON QUALITY

Quality Control: BPPI would ensure that only quality drugs are supplied through the Jan Aushadhi stores as per Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940.

Reason for Failure

3. LACK OF AWARENESS

- 45 patients among 50 i.e. 90% do not know Generic Medicine.
- People are typically following the prescription of doctors, which is mainly influenced by various marketing strategies adopted by pharmaceutical companies promoting branded drugs(No Choice).
- There is no facility for the common man to find, on his own, a generic substitute which is equally safe and efficacious.

Solution

- To counter lack of awareness –

Promotions should be made initially in private television channels, Cinema Halls, posters should be pasted, and in all the places where Public are more easily attracted.

- To counter Doubt on Quality –

Access should also be given to Public to cross check the quality of Generic Medicine through Drug Control Boards and NABL accredited laboratories.

Solution

- To Counter Non Prescription by Doctors-

Executive Inspectors should be appointed for every 100 hospitals and Clinics, where he/she should be inspecting all the Hospitals and Clinics to ensure that doctors are prescribing Generic Medicine, if not stringent actions should be taken on him.

Conclusion

- For which government has to increase the present budget of Rs. 38 crore being sanctioned.<sup>23</sup> Thus there is necessity to create awareness among Public about their Rights i.e. Right to health; there by political, economical and social development can be seen in the Country.
- GOOD HEALTH IS THE GOOD WEALTH - ECONOMICALLY

The Rights of Drug Consumers and Corresponding Duties of Drug Manufactures

By

INTRODUCTION

- ▶ The drugs and cosmetics laws in India as conceived in legislations and policies such as Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940, National Drug Policy etc., help in securing the rights of consumers of drugs and imposing corresponding duties on manufacturers of such drugs.

- Throughout history, there has been a need for balancing the needs and safety of consumers with the interests of manufacturers and sellers. In cases of pharmaceutical industry, due to the nature and diversity of the industry, it is vital for regulations and policies- in order to maintain the balance between interests of members of the industry- manufacturers and suppliers and consumers.

Rights of consumers and corresponding duties

- The Drug/ pharmaceutical market is unique in the nature of the product and manufacturing process.
- The industry is susceptible to adulteration of products, misbranding of products, concealing of information from consumers, false advertising, pricing detrimental to consumers and exploitation of consumers.
- Therefore there is need for strict and proper regulation in relation to protection of consumers' rights

The major Rights of consumers and corresponding Duties of manufacturers, arise out of two concepts in the Pharmaceutical industry- safety and quality of drugs and affordable pricing

Safety and Quality Control

- ▶ According to the Consumer Protection Act 1986, the consumer right to safety is referred to as 'right to be protected against marketing of goods and services which are hazardous to life and property'.
- ▶ Consumers have the right to safe, good-quality goods which are not spurious or adulterated. Thus, the drugs in the market must be safe to consume.

Right of Consumers

- The definition of 'standard quality' is elaborated under Schedule 2 of the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, with regard to the classes of the drug.
- In essence, the schedule provides for the international quality of drugs by various International Organisations' standards, as a standard product in the market.
- Thus, the Act aims to protect the consumer's right to quality drugs which are safe to consume.

Duties of Manufacturer

- ▶ As per Section 18(a), manufacture of drugs has to be mandatorily of standard quality as defined above. It states that no person shall himself or by any other person on his behalf, manufacture for sale or for distribution, or sell, or stock or exhibit or offer for sale or distribute any drug which is not of a standard quality, or is misbranded, adulterated or spurious.

Duties of Manufacturers

- Manufacturers have the duty to produce 'standard quality' drugs and also have to have appropriate licenses for manufacturing.
- Conditions for procuring a license are restrictive, to serve the purpose of quality control. Section 71, 74, 76 and Section 78, along with Schedule M of the Drugs and Cosmetics Rules, enlist the conditions

- Section 18(c) prohibits manufacture for sale, by any person or company, which does not have a license. Section 27(b) provides for the penalty of producing drugs without a valid license.
  - Quality of the procuring raw materials, processing and manufacturing process, packaging, quality control process, labels and printing, warehouses, technology etc. are taken into account for licensing and for quality control.

Reasonable Pricing

- ▶ It is necessary that the price of the drug is such that it can be accessed by the consumers at an affordable price. This is not only the duty of the drug manufacturer but also the government's duty to ensure that drug prices are not too high and especially that of essential medicines.

- Even though it is not explicitly given in the Constitution that there exists a right to health, the DPSP impose a duty on the State to take necessary steps to promote the welfare of the people which is impossible without good health.
  - Article 38 of Indian Constitution impose liability on State that states will secure a social order for the promotion of welfare of the people but without public health we cannot achieve it.
  - Article 47 makes improvement of public health a primary duty of State.

Right to reasonable pricing

- The pricing policy of the manufacturers should be in accordance with the policies of the Government (such as National Drug Policy, National Pharmaceutical Policy etc.). This is to ensure that consumers are able to afford and access medicines or drugs- especially essential drugs.

- The supply of essential medicines or drugs, is a duty of the Manufacturer, as regulated by the Government
  - The Government determines constitutes of essential drugs.
  - The concept of Essential Drugs us based on equity and promotes the health care system, quality of health care and pharmaceutical growth in a country.
  - Thus, it is the right of every consumer to obtain drugs at affordable rates.

Duties of Manufacturers

- The duty of the manufacturers is to prevent and avoid exploitation of consumers by unethical trade practices, unfair pricing policies and illegal or unethical competition.
  - There are many major legislations or policies addressing the issue.

Drug Price Control Order

- ▶ The recent Drugs (Prices Control) Order (DCPO), 2013, elaborates the mechanisms to maintain a sustainable price in the market. Price control should be balanced to suit the interest of the company and the public welfare and health of consumers. Thus, setting of price ceilings, regulating prices of essential drugs etc. should be analysed from an economic perspective, as well.

- Under the provisions of the Drugs (Prices Control) Order, the prices of drugs and the formulations containing any of certain 'scheduled drugs' are controlled. National Pharmaceutical Pricing Authority (NPPA) fixes or revises prices of scheduled drugs or formulations as per the provisions of the DPCO.
  - The NPPA monitors the prices of all formulations, including imported scheduled formulations under price control. Under the provisions of DPCO, 1995, no person is authorized to sell any scheduled formulation (medicine) to a consumer at a price exceeding the price notified or approved by the NPPA.

The Impact of Rising Drugs Costs on Consumers

- ▶ According to an American consumer report journal, rising drugs costs imposes a huge burden on the consumers that they choose to opt for desperate measures to put up with the high costs.

High drugs costs affects Indian Consumers in the following ways-

1. Spending less on leisure activities
2. Cutting down on outdoor dining
3. Cutting down on groceries
4. Increased use of credit cards
5. Post payment of other bills
6. Postponing retirement
7. Take a second job

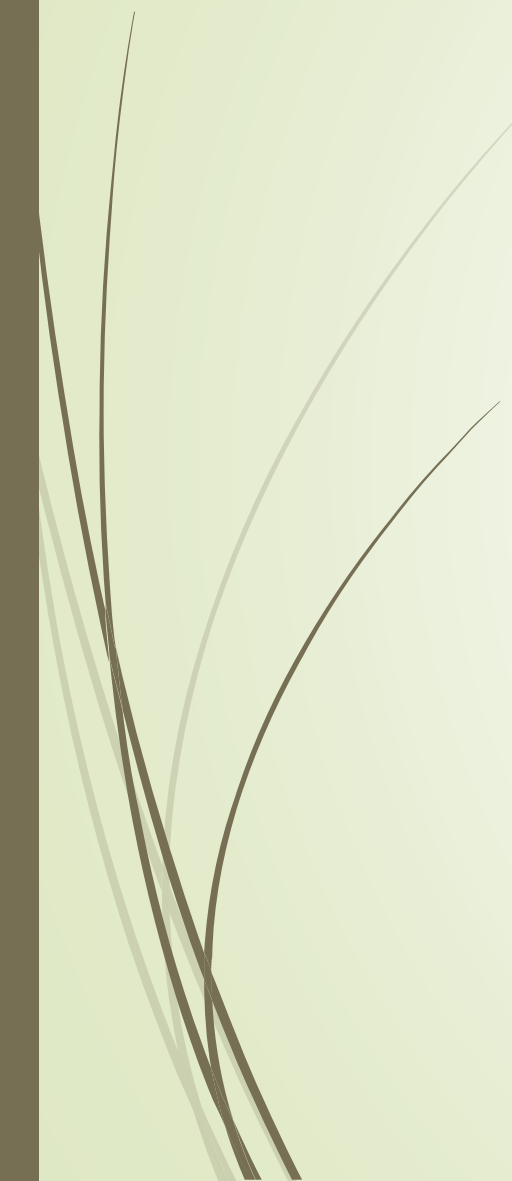

➤ On the health front, the following are the risks involved-

1. Reducing the intake of drugs as opposed to the prescribed amount
2. Splitting of the pills without consulting the doctor
3. Skip an appointment with the doctor
4. Avoid further medical tests and procedure
5. Shifting to substitute medication

How to deal with increasing drug costs for consumers?

- Discuss the issue with your doctor
  - Discuss about alternatives
  - Discuss about change in medication
  - Seal the deal with the pharmacist

Conclusion

- In our research we can conclude that right to safety of a consumer means that the manufacturer has a duty to ensure safety and consumers' right to reasonable price imposes a duty on the manufacturer to price the product at a reasonable rate in the interest of the public. It can also be said that the rights of the consumers can be protected only if all the actors in the pharmaceutical sector (drug manufacturers, State, pharmacists, medical practitioners, etc) work towards a common goal. It is especially important for State to implement policies and work closely with the drug manufacturers to fix the price of the drug.
