3.4.1 QIM Extension activities are carried out in the neighbourhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the last five years:

The college has carried out a number of extension and outreach activities, including cleaning campaigns, blood donation drives and visits to non-governmental organizations, legal awareness programs. The extracurricular activities help students in developing a thorough understanding of social issues and practical approaches to them. The college has an active N.S.S. unit that is committed to serving society and a legal aid unit with a priority for helping the poor and needy. The interaction between the institution on and the community is only possible with the help of the extension activities. Extension activities are integral part to complete legal education. The participation of the students in these activities provides the first opportunity to closely examine daily life at the local level. The college has been actively involved in organizing various events and activities to promote the community network. The college has organized various campaigns to promote the importance of community welfare and to encourage the students to participate in it.

The NSS volunteers have also been involved in organizing various awareness campaigns and contributed to the community by working in cleaning a college campus etc. These activities have enabled the students to gain knowledge and understanding of the social issues and to develop a sense of responsibility towards the society. The college has organised various awareness programmes to educate the students about the importance of donating blood and to motivate them to participate in the blood donation camps. The institution also encourages the students and volunteers in the camps and to spread awareness about the importance of donating blood. The vaccination drive was conducted during the Covid-19 pandemic, wherein the students, staff and neighborhood have benefited. The students have also educated the people about the importance of vaccination, wearing masks and maintaining social distancing. Extension activities help students to develop their problem-solving skills, critical thinking, and creativity. It helps them to develop their communication skills and to learn how to work in a team. It also helps them to develop their leadership skills and to learn how to take initiative and responsibility. Overall, extension activities are beneficial for students as they help them to develop their skills and knowledge, and to become more responsible and active citizens.

Students Participating in the Programme

The Programme was organised, in association with E-Shree Foundation, the implementing partner of ITC 'WOW'- Wellness Out of Waste, at college Auditorium. This Programme was initiated to give effect to the environment principles of REDUCE, RE-USE and RECYCLE. These methods of waste management are mostly environment friendly and help avoid resorting to waste management measures like, landfill and incineration that are harmful to human as well as environment. There are numerous benefits of recycling. Recycling helps recover resource that can be used to make use of them in different ways. A new product can be made by recycling general waste.

Both staff members and students exchanged 239 kilograms of dry waste for stationary items. The Programme was coordinated by Ms. Anwartha and Mr. Rakshith of 'WOW' foundation and Smt. Prathibha B, Faculty member.

human rights in the Constitution of India and also spoke on the theme “EQUALITY-Reducing inequalities, advancing human rights”. On 10th December India along with the other countries celebrates ‘Human Rights Day’. This day is aimed at protecting the rights of human beings. On 10th December-1948 The Universal Declaration of Human Rights was adopted by United Nations General Assembly. This day ensures the citizen must enjoy the rights provided to them. Human rights are inalienable and universal rights.

Students actively participated in the Programme by preparing and displaying posters on the event and also spoke on importance of human rights. They spoke on importance of human rights. Human rights include economic, social, fundamental and other rights that must be given to an individual just because he or she is a human being. The speakers emphasized on importance of celebrating human rights. Despite more and more people getting educating and the progress of the world, there are billions who are oppressed and under privileged in some way or the other. There are many who don't equally enjoy the rights and privileges of the majority of us. Many still face discrimination on the basis of their cast, creed, religion, financial background or ethnicity. Human rights day addresses the concern of such people in society and seeks to bring them to fore front.

The Jatha was flagged off by Sri. S. T. Narayana Gowda, Donor and Director in-charge, VCL and Dr. K.B. Kempe Gowda, Principal has graced the occasion. This Jatha was led by NSS unit, to promote the use of eco-friendly Ganesha idols during the Gowri-Ganesha festival. It is our responsibility to protect the environment by using eco-friendly Ganesha idol made up off natural products.

It saves our water resources, water living organism, human health from unclean water. Green Ganesha idols are created using organic mud or clay and natural pigments, in contrast to plastic and plaster of paris which significantly damage water bodies, they are environmentally safe. We can help the environment by becoming responsible citizens. The sea species and water bodies are highly contaminated by plaster of paris which is non-bio degradable substance consisting of toxins and dangers colors.

Many campaigns are run to raise awareness about protecting environment using different media. During the Jatha the students displayed placards, posters and chanted slogans on the harm caused to the environment by the use of POP idols.

Welcome address was delivered by Prof. K.B. Kempe Gowda, Principal, VCL. The programme was presided by the Sri. C. N. Manche Gowda, Honorable Secretary, Janatha Education Society ®, Bengaluru. Sri. S. T. Narayanagowda, Donor and Vice-President, Vivekananda College of Law, Bengaluru graced the occasion.

This Special Lecture was organised for the students of Vivekananda Business Management College, Vivekananda Pharmacy College, Vivekananda Women's College, Mahalakshimpura. Human Rights Day was jointly celebrated by the conglomeration of institutions run by Janatha Education Society, Bengaluru at H.L. Thimme Gowda Auditorium in the main campus. The Principal of our college, Prof. K.B. Kempe Gowda while addressing the gathering brought out the significance of human rights, being the natural rights of people worldwide with a distinct characteristic of being inalienable. In this programme staff members and students actively participated.

The speaker emphasized on importance of celebrating human rights. Despite more and more people getting educating and the progress of the world, there are billions who are oppressed and under privileged in some way or the other. There are many who don't equally enjoy the rights and privileges of the majority of us. Many still face discrimination on the basis of their cast, creed, religion, financial background or ethnicity.

Report on Awareness Programme on Environment protection:

On 5th November 2018, NSS Unit of Vivekananda College of Law organized a rally in the vicinity of Gayathrinagar, Malleshwaram, Srirampura, Milk Colony and other places of Bangalore.

The awareness programme was organised to educate the public and create awareness among public on the ill- effects and pollution that are caused by bursting crackers on health conditions of children, women and old aged persons and also effects on environment.

It's a practice to take out a Jatha in the vicinity, led by our NSS unit, with posters, placards and chanting slogans about the Haran caused to our environment by bursting crackers during the impending festival of Deepavali. The neighborhood extends positive response by coming out of their houses and interacting with the staff and students.

The students visited the houses, shops and schools to create the awareness on burning crackers. Duration of the Programme was 4 hours, there were about more than 200 hundred students participated. T.V. and Media was also present on the day and had widely covered this programme.

Volunteers of NSS and Students have actively participated in cleaning the college premises. Inspired by Mahatma Gandhiji's vision of cleanliness, the Government of India under the leadership of Honble Prime Minister Sri. Narendra Modi, made it as a mission to make India clean by eradicating open defecation, improving solid waste management and making the citizens aware of the importance of cleanliness. The name of the mission was 'Swachh Bharat Abhiyan'.

The primary goal of the campaign is to eliminate the practice of open defecation and provide basic sanitation facilities, waste disposal systems, clean drinking water etc., It aims to clean streets, roads, town and infrastructure across the country. On the occasion of 'Gandhi Jayanthi', our college organised 'Swachh Bharat Abhiyan' and the students participated in the Abhiyan by cleaning the college premises. Staff were present in the Abhiyan.

This was inaugurated by Sri. H.K. Jagadish, Special Secretary, Law Dept., Govt. of Karnataka. He spoke on importance of the legal awareness among the citizen. The majority of our citizens are unaware of the country's legal structure as well as human rights. Legal Services Authorities Act-1987 provides free legal services for the needy including women. He also spoke on constitutional provisions which protect the women.

The Legal Services Authorities provides nation-wide uniform network of free and competent legal services to the weaker sections of the society on the basis of equal opportunities. The Constitution of India not only allows equality to women but also sanction the state to adopt action towards positive discrimination in favour of girls for making the collective socio-economic, education and political disadvantages faced by them. Fundamental rights ensure equality before the law and equal protection of the law, prohibits discrimination against any citizen on grounds of faith, race, caste, sex or place of birth and guaranteed equality of opportunity to all in matters concerning employment.

The Chief Guests were Sri. S.T. Narayana Gowda, Vice President and Donor, JES, Sri. C.N. Manche Gowda, Hon'ble Secretary, JJanatha Education Society. Sri. H.G Balagopal, Chairman, Law Forum, VCL and Principal, Faculty and students of our college also participated.
