1. 7 lamps of Advocacy

me : there are 7 lamps of advocacy and that should have to follow by every Advocate and that's known as the ethics of Adv Act, and also that in Adv Act 1961

1.) Loyalty

Loyalty is the first rule and that must shall follow. which means the advocate must have a loyalty to the court and also to the client

the Advocate must show it and if the loyalty break by any advocate to the court then consequences as misconduct of the court

2.) Integrity

Gayatri Nagar, Bangalore - 560 021 the alleged must have a case to which means he must have the facts and evidence to be used later also cause person the cause also impact to the case probably

3) Eloquence

the main important issue is that Eloquence - which means the duty of the alleged is that to convince the court. Thus, on his way and asks he must have the language skill too he would not make any error in his speech

~~etc~~

4) Wit

wit means the using of the brain clearly the alleged must have knowledge of where is the point how it can use here to convince the court he can read himself and stay narrate uses the similar case or any other thing in to refer for the court for the conflict by using the mindset.

5) integrity

integrity means that the Advocate shall shall have a commitment to the profession ethics. he must have to follow that the interest of the State is that court and the best court he must shall follow the rules and regulations, otherwise it comes under misconduct

6) judgment

the final stage of the case is that judgment from the beginning to end always would work in the eye judges: also known as sentence.

the judgment is the final decision in that court and Advocate shall follow that
