Report on Constitution Day Celebrations

Constitution Day was celebrated in our College on 25th November, 2023, through a Special Lecture delivered by Prof Jeevan Kumar, Professor (Retd) Department of Political Science, Bangalore University, Bengaluru. Dr Vijay A N, Assistant Professor & Programme Coordinator welcomed the gathering. Smt Kalpana L, Assistant Professor, administered pledge to the students by the reading of the Preamble of the Constitution. The Chief Guest, Prof Jeevan Kumar, delivered a scintillating lecture on the topic "Competing Visions of the Indian Constitution". He spoke at length about the challenges to be faced by Independent India after a long and arduous anticolonial struggle. He stated that, intense deliberations were held by the members of the Constituent Assembly on the competing visions to be incorporated into the Constitution for the success of India as a Sovereign Democratic Nation. He stressed on the importance of the functioning of democracy at the grassroot level of the Panchayat Raj System. He stated that the discussions in the Constituent Assembly revolved upon the competing interests of different groups of people and also different political parties. It was contemplated that the blind introduction of the western education system, the western liberal ideas of democracy, social justice and nationalism may not suit independent India. The Constitutional values enshrined should protect the rich culture and diverse interests of all sections of Indian society. He impressed upon the audience that the Constitutional vision focused on various competing interests, as to whether Indian democracy should be only about political freedom? Or should include economic freedom and social justice? Should it be about equal rights to all irrespective of caste, creed, place of birth and gender? And if that is so, how can such equality be realised in an unequal society?

Dr K B Kempe Gowda, Principal, presided over the programme. He highlighted the sacrifices and efforts of the freedom fighters in making India independent from British shackles. He threw light on the minute details borne in mind by the makers of the Constitution in creating a visionary document.

The programme was anchored by Ms Vijusha of III sem B.A. LL B. All the faculty members and students actively participated in the programme. The programme ended with the vote of thanks proposed by Mr Ranjith of III sem 3 Yr LL B.

Sudesh, Senior Professor, University Law College, Bengaluru, was the Chief Guest for the Human Rights Day Celebrations. He delivered a lecture on the topic "Celebrating 75 Years of UDHR-Contemporary Challenges to Human Rights."

The speaker emphasized on importance of celebrating human rights. Despite more and more people getting educating and the progress of the world, there are billions who are oppressed and under privileged in some way or the other. There are many who don't equally enjoy the rights and privileges of the majority of us. Many still face discrimination on the basis of their cast, creed, religion, financial background or ethnicity.

Speaker brought out the importance given to human rights in the Constitution of India and also spoke on the theme "EQUALITY-Reducing inequalities, advancing human rights". On 10th December India along with the other countries celebrates 'Human Rights Day'. This day is aimed at protecting the rights of human beings. Human rights are inalienable and universal rights.

Human rights include economic, social, fundamental and other rights that must be given to an individual just because he or she is a human being. These methods of waste management are mostly environment friendly and help avoid resorting to waste management measures like, landfill and incineration that are harmful to human as well as environment. There are numerous benefits of recycling. Recycling helps recover resource that can be used to make use of them in different ways. A new product can be made by recycling general waste.

Both staff members and students exchanged dry waste for stationary items as an Environmental Protection initiative but also held an exhibition of decorative items prepared from waste paper. The Programme was coordinated by Ms. Anwartha and Mr. Rakshith of 'WOW' foundation and Smt. Prathibha B, Faculty member.
