QIM: There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial, teaching, mentoring, and/or other support services.

The Alumni Association plays a crucial role in fostering a strong and lasting bond between the institution and its alumni. It serves as a platform to connect alumni with their alma mater and promotes interaction among alumni, faculty, students, and industry professionals. This connection not only enhances the institution's reputation but also creates a vibrant and supportive community that benefits everyone involved.

The Alumni Association significantly contributes to the institution's development in various ways:

1. Admissions and Outreach: Alumni actively participate in promoting the institution, helping to attract fresh admissions every academic year.
2. Financial Support: Benevolent alumni members extend financial assistance to economically weaker students, ensuring that deserving students can continue their education without hindrance.
3. Mentoring and Guidance: Alumni serve as mentors, offering invaluable career guidance and sharing their professional experiences with current students. This mentoring helps students gain insights into the demands of the profession and enhances their employability.
4. Curricular and Co-curricular Activities: Alumni are actively involved in organizing workshops, guest lectures, and training sessions, providing students with exposure to the latest trends and practices in their respective fields.

5. Professional Development: Alumni members contribute by delivering special lectures, conducting mock trials, and mentoring moot court teams, thus bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application.

6. Recognition of Eminent Alumni: The institution is proud to have alumni who have achieved significant positions as Honorable Judges of High Courts and Subordinate Courts, Senior Counsels, Eminent Advocates, Members of Parliament, and Academicians. Their success serves as an inspiration for current students, motivating them to strive for excellence in their chosen fields.

7. Networking Opportunities: Through alumni meets and networking events, the institution facilitates professional connections that benefit both alumni and students in their career progression.

8. Support for Institutional Growth: Alumni also contribute to the infrastructural development of the institution by donating resources, sponsoring academic events, and facilitating collaborations with reputed organizations.

The institution deeply values the contributions of its alumni, whose unwavering support continues to shape the academic and professional excellence of the college. Their involvement is a testament to their enduring bond with the institution and their commitment to its progress.
