WORLD AIDS DAY

World AIDS Day, is observed on December 1st, to draw attention to the ongoing HIV infection, a significant public health issue impacting over 2 million individuals in the European Region alone. This critical concern prompts the World Health Organization (WHO) and its partners to commemorate World AIDS Day 2023 with the theme "Let communities lead."

On this occasion of observing World AIDS Day a Jatha was held by our students, in the vicinity, to raise awareness to HIV people around the world and unite to show support for people living with & affected by HIV & to remember those who lost their lives to AIDS. The faculty members & students joined hands to raise awareness in the neighborhood through posters, placards and slogans.

20.06.2023

INTERNATIONAL YOGA DAY

International Yoga Day is celebrated on the 21 of June every year, as it is the longest day of the year in the northern hemisphere.

Yoga is an invaluable gift of India's ancient tradition. It embodies unity of mind & body; thought & action; restraint & fulfillment; harmony between man & nature; a holistic approach to health & wellbeing.

Dr. Harshavardan, Yoga Therapist, Isha Foundation, Bengaluru & Sri. Deeksha, Yoga Therapist, guided the conduct of yoga in our institution at Sri. S.T.Naryana Gowda Auditorium, College Premises. The Principal, Staff & Students performed yoga with great zeal on the occasion.

Celebration of Human Rights Day

Human Rights Day was celebrated on 09.12.2023 Dr. V. Sudesh, senior Professor University Law College, Bengaluru was the chief guest on this occasion he spoke eloquently on the Topic “Celebrating -75 Years of UDHR- Contemporary Challenges to Human Rights”. In his lecture he threw light on the importance of Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 1948.

Universal Declaration of Human Rights serves as a reminder of the enduring importance of human rights and the need to continue the determination to protect and promote them. We must underline the responsibility of governments, civil society and individuals to work for a world in which everyone can enjoy these rights and live-in dignity and freedom. In order to meet the challenges, it requires sustained international cooperation, advocacy and commitment from both states and civil society to promote and protect human rights worldwide. The role of International Organisations such as the UN, Regional Organisations and structures is fundamental to defending and promoting human rights across the world. Students actively participated in the interaction session.

On this occasion Prof Dr. K.B. Kempe Gowda Principal, VCL welcomed the gathering, Sri M.R. Lakshmi Manohar, chairmen, Governing Council presided over the programme and Professor Hanuma Prakash K.S. proposed Vote of Thanks.
