Constitution Day Celebrations – 25.11.2023

Constitution Day, also known as 'Samvidhan Divas' is celebrated in India on 26th November every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. on 26th November 1949, the Constituent Assembly adopted the Constitution of India, which came into effect from 26th January 1950.

The college celebrated the Constitution Day in a grand manner with guest lecture by Prof. D.Jeevan Kumar, Professor of Political Science, Bangalore University, Bengaluru. He spoke on Gandhian views of Constitution and expressed that Constitution which basically consisted of 60-page document and divided into 22 chapters that included 'Basic Principles', 'Fundamental Rights and Duties', 'Provincial Government', 'Central Government', and the 'Judiciary'. He also said that Gandhi preferred for a decentralized government & strongly opposed centralized power, which he thought was expensive, inefficient, ruthless, and power-hungry.

The Principal, Dr. K.B.Kempe Gowda warmly welcomed the gathering. The students actively interacted with the Chief Guest.
