The institution strives hard to provide holistic education. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) leaves no stone unturned in organising a plethora of activities in the interest of development of the student community.

The Academic Year was commenced with an Induction Programme. It was well attended by the new entrants & their parents. They were appraised of their responsibilities with regard to the academic curricula, rules & regulations of the University, eligibility criteria, evaluation process, parent-teachers meetings & so on.

Orientation Programme was organised to channelise students aspirations to the avenues of lucrative Career in Law. A host of Judges, legal luminaries, renowned teachers & alumni addressed the new entrants on the exciting study of law & the avenues open to them to further their career.

A warm welcome was extended to the new entrants of the institution through the celebration of Fresher's Day, aiding their integration into the institution, boosting their confidence & motivating them on their academic journey.

A Skill Development Programme was conducted to inspire budding lawyers on practice before the High Courts & Supreme Court.

Internal Assessment Tests were conducted as per University Guidelines to prepare students for the Semester Examinations.

Curriculum based Special Lectures were held in addition to regular classes for getting a better insight into the Courses of Study.

It has become the norm to end each semester by a 7 Day Faculty Development Programme to enhance academic knowledge of teachers to upgrade their teaching skills on various subjects of Law, by inviting renowned jurists.

Parent-Teachers' meetings are a regular feature for keeping them in the loops regarding their ward's progress.

Report on the 7Day Faculty Development Programme on 'Interpretation of Statutes' (Virtual) conducted between 11/03/2024 and 18/03/2024

The 7 Day Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on 'Interpretation of Statutes', (Virtual) was conducted between 11th of March 2023 and 18th of March 2023. A Nominal Registration fees of Rs 500/- was levied on each participant. The Sessions of the FDP were scheduled to be held in the evening for 7 days, between 4.30 pm and 6.00 pm, in the virtual mode to facilitate the teachers across different states to attend and benefit from the same.

On 11/03/2024, the FDP was inaugurated by the Vice Chancellor of the Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi, Prof. Dr. C. Basavaraju by delivering the inaugural address. He applauded our endeavour of conducting the FDP and urged the other Law Colleges to follow suit. He opined that the university should be conducting the FDPs and acclaimed us for doing so. In fact, he endeared us to initiate more such academic activities and stressed that henceforth this should be a regular annual event by our institution. Sri HG Balagopal, Hon. Secretary, JES delivered the Presidential Address. Dr Sumithra R, Assistant Professor and also Programme Co Ordinator delivered the vote of thanks. Sri ST Narayana Gowda, Donor and Sri M R Lakshmi Manohar, Chairman Governing Council - VCL graced the occasion and wished the FDP a grand success.

The First Session of the FDP witnessed a scholarly discourse by Prof. K Shivaprasad, Prof of Law and Head, Academics, Rajiv Gandhi College of Law, Bengaluru on 'Jurisprudential Dimensions of Interpretation', touching upon the introduction to the basic principles of interpretation. He dealt with different legal maxims which aid the process of interpretation.

The second session on 12/03/2024, Tuesday was conducted by Prof. (Dr) GB Reddy, Senior Professor of Law, Osmania University, Hyderabad and he spoke at length on 'Constitutional Interpretation in India: Intention of Framers and its Continuing Relevance'. He integrated Rules of Constitutional interpretation with Constituent Assembly debates

The third session on 13/03/2024, Wednesday, Dr P Puneeth, Professor, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi delivered a lecture on 'Statutory Interpretation: Relevance of 'Legislative Intent' and Difficulties in Finding it.He discussed the difficulties involved in interpretation and giving effect to true intent of a legislation.

The fourth session on 14/03/2024, Thursday, Prof (Dr) Manjit Singh Nijjar, Former Registrar, Punjabi University, Patiala spoke on 'Relevance of Mimansa Rules of Interpretation of Indian Legal System'. He dealt with various literary works of ancient India and how they have continued to be a source of law even today.

The fifth session on 15/03/2024, Sri.MV Sheshachala, Senior Advocate, High Court of Karnataka, dealt with the topic of 'Practical Interpretation of Taxing Statutes' which included a discourse on interpretation of laws of taxation and he stressed on strict interpretation of tax laws.

The sixth session on 16/03/2024, Friday, was conducted by Dr A Nagarathna, Associate Professor of Law, National Law School of India University, Bengaluru. She spoke on 'Interpretation of Indian Cyber Statutes: An Attempt to Achieve Ends of Justice with Beneficial Application of the Existing Provisions'.She highlighted the wide occurrence of cybercrimes in the era of information technology and how they should be tried by the courts to attain ends of justice.

The seventh and the final session on 18/03/2024, Monday, was conducted by Hon'ble Mr Justice K N Phaneendra, Upalokayukta, Government of Karnataka and also Former Judge, High Court of Karnataka. He spoke on 'Interpretation of Statutes: Criminal Law Perspective'. He urged the authorities and the advocates to interpret criminal laws in a way which helps victims to get justice and the perpetrators punishment.

At the end of the session, participants were asked to volunteer to share their opinions about the FDP. Some of the participants spoke and expressed their gratitude and also their immense satisfaction about the panel of the speakers, the timing of the sessions and the subjects chosen in the FDP. The valedictory address was delivered by Prof Venkata Rao, Vice Chancellor of India International University of Legal Education and Research, Goa and also Former Vice Chancellor, National Law School of India University, Bengaluru. Presidential address was delivered by Sri HG Balagopal, Hon. Secretary, JES. Dr Sumithra R, Assistant Professor and also Programme Co ordinator delivered the vote of thanks

All the 7 sessions were well attended by the participants hailing from different states like Karnataka, Tamilnadu, Andhra Pradesh, Gujarat and Kerala. At the end of each session, feedback was collected from the participants, which depicted the positive response from almost all the participants. In fact, some participants requested us to conduct some more FDPs on the other subjects as well. Most of the participants were in praise of our sincere efforts to conduct this FDP effectively. The FDP ended on a good and successful note. e-Certificates were issued to all the participants.
